

Join the Health and Human Services Legal Team

AT THE HHS OFFICE OF THE GENERAL Counsel, our attorneys have played key roles in such highly visible matters as food safety, faith-based and community initiatives, responsible fatherhood, refugee resettlement, protection of victims of trafficking and victims of abuse, improving the quality of nursing home care, protecting the privacy of medical records, reducing medical errors, HIV/AIDS research and prevention and matters dealing with intellectual property. We've done it for one reason...to ensure that health and human services are available to every American.

With more than 300 attorneys practicing in specialties ranging from civil rights to medical research ethics, the OGC has become a critical member in the Nation's health-care team. Whether we're providing legal advice on welfare reform, or fighting for child support enforcement in Federal court, we're the professional team the country can count on for the highest quality legal representation on the social, economic, scientific, and ethical issues that affect us all.

If you're looking for a real challenge and trial experience early in your career, we've got a place for you. Do justice to your career. Join the HHS Office of the General Counsel.
